

Edward A. Ames Seminars – Spring 2020

A seminar series on scientific issues related to the environmental quality and resource management of the New York/New Jersey Harbor Estuary.

Coronavirus Pandemic Update: The Hudson River Foundation has postponed the Panel on Green Infrastructure to June 16th, and moved to a webinar-only format for the rest of our Spring Ames Seminar Series. Please refer to our website for updated information on all upcoming events.

Tuesday, April 14, 2020, 10:30 a.m. – 12:00 p.m.

Rapid Tidal Marsh Development on the Hudson during Period of Tributary Damming and Shoreline Modification

Brian Yellen, Ph.D., Assistant Professor, UMass Amherst

Wednesday, May 20, 2020, 10:30 a.m. – 12:00 p.m.

Environmental DNA Assessment of Biodiversity, Abundance & Phenology of Hudson Estuary Fishes

John Waldman, Ph.D., Professor, Queens College
Elizabeth Alter, Ph.D., Assistant Professor, York College
Sam Chin, York College

Tuesday, June 16, 2020, 1:30 p.m. – 3:00 p.m.

Innovative Green Infrastructure Programs: Benefits, Challenges, Opportunities, and Lessons Learned

Marc Cammarata, Deputy Commissioner of Planning & Environmental Services, Philadelphia Water Department
Pinar Balci, Assistant Commissioner, New York City Department of Environmental Protection
Andy Kricun, Senior Utility Advisor, Moonshot Missions and Senior Fellow, US Water Alliance

All seminars will be held via webinar.

RSVP by emailing info@hudsonriver.org
Capacity is limited. Please e-mail in advance.